Case No. AP-94-24

By application filed May 27, 1994, Kids On The Go, Inc. (KOTGI or applicant), a Maryland corporation, seeks a certificate of authority to transport passengers in irregular route operations between points in the Metropolitan District, restricted to transportation in vehicles with a manufacturer's designed seating capacity of 15 or fewer persons, including the driver.

The application includes information regarding, among other things, applicant's corporate status, facilities, proposed tariff, finances, and regulatory compliance record. The application is available for inspection at the office of the Commission during its regular business hours.

Applicant proposes commencing operations with a 15-passenger van. Applicant's proposed tariff contains per capita rates with a mileage-based surcharge for individual service, hourly rates with minimum charges for group charter service, and flat per capita rates for airport service.

Applicant has not requested baggage authority even though passengers requesting airport service normally carry luggage. Applicant will be directed to file a statement expressly requesting or declining authority to transport baggage in the same vehicles as passengers.

In determining whether to grant or deny an application for a certificate of authority, the Compact at Title II, Article XI, Section 7 requires that the Commission determine whether an applicant is fit, willing, and able to perform the transportation properly and conform to the provisions of the Compact and the Commission's rules, regulations, and requirements and whether the transportation is consistent with the public interest. Pursuant to Commission Rule No. 6, this order and fulfillment of its requirements will provide notice of KOTGI's application for a certificate of authority.
